

Anniversary Date

The first day of regular employment with Detroit Mercy shall be the employee's date of hire and shall become the employee's anniversary date. An employee's anniversary date will remain the same unless he or she has a leave of absence from work for more than 120 calendar days.

Employees who terminate, and are rehired at a later date, will start their employment over with a new hire and anniversary date.